

CDU serves as a co-credentialed of the Magis Institute's Master Teacher Certification in Contemporary Apologetics. The curriculum prepares middle and high school teachers and catechists to teach students some of the main areas of the faith and science dialogue that will help students maintain their faith and use it to achieve higher levels of purpose in life and bring transcendent meaning to relationships and suffering.