

Program Director

Catholic Distance University (cdu.edu) seeks a full-time bilingual (English/Spanish) program director for immediate hire to manage all facets of a new online curriculum in Catholic Social Teaching (CST) for its new initiatives in the area of Hispanic Ministry and CST at the A.A., B.A., and M.A. levels. The Program Director will supervise new programming and online course offerings in CST with outreach to U.S. Hispanic/Latino Catholics. The successful candidate will have the educational and management skills not only to oversee a new curriculum but also to collaborate with new partners, bilingual organizations, marketers, and fundraisers. Effectiveness in data-driven assessment measurements of student outcomes is essential. The Program Director should ideally hold a doctorate in Theology or Education (Ph.D., S.T.D., Th.D., or Ed.D) with five years of experience in the field of Hispanic Ministry and advanced knowledge of CST, particularly the see, judge and act method of pastoral engagement. The Program Director should be bilingual and have prior familiarity with catechetical methods that are bilingual and bicultural. Familiarity with online learning methods as well as the needs of contemporary Latino youth are particularly welcome.
